They have advanced to the next round

02.07.2026

We know which eight men's teams have a chance to compete for medals. We also know which teams will be playing for the remaining spots. The women's tournament is entering its decisive phase.

The match between France and Lebanon was tense from the start, with first place in the group on the line. France held the advantage for most of the game, but Lebanon played well defensively, blocking long-range shots. Lebanon's goalkeeper came close to scoring the first goal, hitting the crossbar! Four minutes before the end of the first half, Alexis Dubois opened the scoring for France with a penalty kick. In the second half, the Lebanese futsal team equalized. The match ended with that score, and both teams advanced to the quarterfinals. - It was a tough match because Lebanon played close to their goal and there wasn't much space to attack. Objectively speaking, we're happy with this result. For now, we've focused on ourselves, and only now will we start thinking about who we'll face in the next round - said Leo Faytre, captain of the French team.

In the next match, played at the Bemowo arena, Brazil faced Finland. The Scandinavian team had to win if it wanted to have any chance of advancing to the quarterfinals. In the end, however, the reigning university world vice-champions prevailed 2:1 after a hard-fought match.

Meanwhile, in Pruszków, the Portuguese national team had to score several goals against Israel if it wanted to finish first in Group B and avoid facing France in the quarterfinals. The six goals scored in the first half weren't enough for Portugal—they added another fifteen in the second. The match ultimately ended with a score of 21:0. In Group D, Slovakia secured its third victory of the tournament by defeating Saudi Arabia 3:2.

The women's group stage has reached the decisive point. The Polish women secured their second victory at the FISU World University Futsal Championship. Following thursday's win over the U.S., they this time proved better than the Costa Rican team. The match remained scoreless for a long time, and fans had to wait until late in the second half for the first goal. In the 33rd minute, following the Costa Ricans' sixth foul, Julita Wietrzykowska opened the scoring on an extended penalty kick. Three minutes later, Natalia Matuszewska made it 2:0. In the closing minutes of the match, Costa Rica scored a consolation goal (1:3).

After a thrilling match, the French women defeated Finland 5:1. The Brazilian women continued their winning streak by defeating Lebanon 5:1. The scoring began in the very first minute, when Emily Sofia scored the opening goal for Brazil. I think our team is very close-knit; we feel relaxed, and things are going well. We all really want this title. We're a group of girls who know each other from Brazil, from the national league. I think this is the best group we could have chosen - said Sofia Emylli De Figueredo Cabrera, from Brazil team.
